Sir,

In forwarding herewith the Kolar Taluk Amildar's report No: 49 dated 7th April with an estimate for the repairs of the temple of Sri Kolaramma, situated in the Kolar town for Rs 294/-, I have the honour to state that on the 4th April 1908, I inspected the temple and found that it was in urgent need of repairs and gave personal instructions to the Amildar to submit an estimate for the repairs which he has now done. I request that you will be good as to obtain Government Sanction for the same, the cost being met from the State grant of the next Official year, as the institution has no funds at its credit.
